

Coach Education

Club Coach

The Club Coach course deals mainly with coaching methods and communication.

Course Duration:	2 days plus 1 day assessment
Assessment:	Candidates must deliver a 20 minute coaching session under observation
Context:	Takes on discipline from prior instructor qualification
Entry Requirements:	NSRA Life or Annual member Range Conducting Officer qualification Club Instructor qualification
Topics Covered:	British Shooting structure Law Safety Equipment Communication Presentation skills Organisation General goals of body positioning Process of firing a shot Helping people to learn Putting it all together in a practical coaching session Code of conduct General documents Assessment
Cost:	£85 for affiliated Lincolnshire Clubs £95 for all others and out of county clubs

For more information or to register interest in a course contact :-
Coaching Committee Chairman Richard Johnson